Ord.
6 of 1992.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act, as amended by the said Ordinance, shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act, as amended by this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Public Liability Insurance Act, 1991 was enacted with the object of providing immediate relief to the victims of accidents that might occur while handling hazardous substances. The owner who has control over handling hazardous substances is required under the Act to pay specified amounts to the victims as interim relief based on no fault liability. It is mandatory for every owner handling hazardous substances to take out insurance policies for the purpose.

2. The aforesaid Act could not, however, be implemented on account of the insurance companies not agreeing to give insurance policies for unlimited liability of the owners. It was, therefore, felt that the liability of the insurance companies should be limited to the amount of the insurance policy, though the owner's liability shall continue to be unlimited under the Act. It was considered appropriate to create an Environmental Relief Fund with the additional money collected from the owners having control over handling of hazardous substances. This fund would be used to meet the requirement of providing immediate relief to the victims. The minimum and maximum limits of the insurance amount in an insurance policy also needed to be specified for ensuring payment of adequate relief. Certain definitions were also to be suitably modified to make the meaning more explicit. It was felt necessary to prevent any transfer of property by the owner in case he intended to do so for evading his liability to pay compensation.

3. To achieve the above objective, the Public Liability Insurance (Amendment) Ordinance, 1992, was promulgated by the President on 31st January, 1992 as the owners handling hazardous substances had to take insurance policies by 31st March, 1992.

4. The Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance and to achieve the aforesaid objects.

KAMAL NATH.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 5 of the Bill seeks to empower the Central Government to make a scheme with respect to the Environmental Relief Fund.

2. Clause 7 empowers the Central Government to prescribe the maximum amount of an insurance policy, the amount required to be paid by an owner to the Relief Fund and the manner in which and the period within which the money as collected is to be remitted to the Relief Fund by the insurer.

3. The matters in respect of which the Central Government has been empowered to make a scheme and rules relate to matters of procedure and detail. The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.

BILL NO. 36 OF 1992

A Bill further to amend the Governors (Emoluments, Allowances and Privileges) Act, 1982.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Forty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Governors (Emoluments, Allowances and Privileges) Amendment Act, 1992.

Short title.
and commencement.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of June, 1988.

2. In section 3 of the Governors (Emoluments, Allowances and Privileges) Act, 1982, in the proviso, in clause (a),—

Amendment of section 3 of Act 43.
of 1982.

(a) in sub-clause (ii), for the word "and", occurring at the end, the word "or" shall be substituted;

(b) sub-clause (iii) shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 3 of the Governors (Emoluments, Allowances and Privileges) Act, 1982 (43 of 1982) provides that there shall be paid to every Governor emoluments at the rate of Rs. 11,000/- per mensem. Clause (a) of the proviso of this section also provides that if a Governor, at the time of his appointment, is in receipt of a pension (other than disability or wound pension) in respect of any previous service under the Government of India or any of its predecessor Governments or under the Government of a State or any of its predecessor Governments, his emoluments shall be reduced,—

(i) by the amount of that pension; and

(ii) if he has, before such appointment, received in lieu of a portion of the pension due to him in respect of such previous service the commuted value thereof, by the amount of that portion of the pension; and

(iii) if he has, before such appointment, received a retirement gratuity in respect of such previous service, by the pension equivalent of that gratuity.

2. The Government of India in the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions have issued orders to the effect that the pension equivalent of gratuity may not be deducted while fixing the pay of re-employed pensioners. The Ministry of Finance have also issued orders that the pension equivalent of gratuity will not be taken into account while fixing the initial pay of retired Judges of the High Courts and Supreme Court appointed to Committees or on Commissions. These orders have been made effective from the 1st June, 1988.

3. The Bill seeks to amend the Governors (Emoluments, Allowances and Privileges) Act, 1982 to allow the benefit of not deducting pension equivalent of gratuity from the emoluments payable to Governors. According to the amendments proposed in the Bill, Governors who had received retirement gratuity in respect of previous service would be benefited.

4. The Bill seeks to achieve the above object.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) was established in 1988 through a Government Resolution to promote orderly and healthy growth of the securities market and for investors' protection. SEBI has been monitoring the activities of stock exchanges, mutual funds and merchant bankers, etc., to achieve these goals.

The capital market has witnessed tremendous growth in recent times, characterised particularly by the increasing participation of the public. Investors' confidence in the capital market can be sustained largely by ensuring investors' protection. With this end in view, Government decided to vest SEBI immediately with statutory powers required to deal effectively with all matters relating to capital market. As Parliament was not in session, and there was an urgent need to instil a sense of confidence in the public in the growth and stability of the capital market, the President promulgated the Securities and Exchange Board of India Ordinance, 1992 (No. 5 of 1992) on the 30th January, 1992.

3. The Bill seeks to replace the aforesaid Ordinance.
